Appeals Policy and Procedures

Section 1 - Candidate appeals.

1.1 Appeals

Any individual or organisation that is affected by an assessment decision made by Red Dragon First Aid and their Trainers is eligible to take advantage of the appeals process.

1.2 Candidate Appeals

Appeals can be made to areas of concern by candidates, including but not limited to administration and assessment errors, perceived discrimination, and failure to take into account any special circumstances or decisions relating to malpractice or misconduct.

Candidates are strongly recommended to pursue any enquiry, complaint or grievance informally by telephone or email enquiry to Red Dragon First Aid, before following formal systems, as many appeals can be resolved satisfactorily through these informal means.

There is a time limit for making appeals (3 weeks) from course completion. There is a time limit of a further 3 weeks to review this appeal, an appeal review fee is payable (refundable if the appeal is upheld).

1.3 Appeals to Red Dragon First Aid

Appeals can be made to all areas of concern to those delivering courses, including but not limited to decisions regarding approvals, sanctions and Internal Verifier, decisions, requests for reasonable adjustments or special consideration, or decisions relating to malpractice or misconduct.

Disagreement with an assessment judgement is not normally grounds for an appeal. Red Dragon First Aid Trainers follow strict criteria when making their assessment decisions in accordance with ITC assessment specifications. However, candidates can appeal assessment judgement if required.

Appeals generally fall into the following categories:

- a) Administration error - typically a mistake in recording results.
- b) Assessment error - perhaps using criteria other than those specified in the qualification.
- c) Discrimination - the method of assessment was not fair and reasonable under the circumstances, or the assessor was biased or prejudiced.
- d) Decisions regarding Reasonable Adjustments and Special Considerations.
